Consideration of Proposed Amendments to 22 Tex. Admin. Code §217.12, Pertaining to Unprofessional Conduct

Background: Senate Bill (SB) 37 was enacted during the 86th Legislative Session and took effect June 7, 2019. SB 37 prohibits agencies from taking disciplinary action (including denial and suspension) against an individual’s license based upon the individual’s default or breach of a student loan repayment contract. The proposed amendments are necessary to conform to this statutory change.

Board Action: Move to approve the proposed amendments to 22 Texas Administrative Code §217.12, pertaining to Unprofessional Conduct, as set out in Attachment “A”, with authority for the General Counsel to make editorial changes as necessary to clarify rule and Board intent and to comply with the formatting requirements of the Texas Register. If no negative comments and no request for a public hearing are received, move to adopt the proposed amendments to 22 Texas Administrative Code §217.12, pertaining to Unprofessional Conduct, as proposed.
Attachment “A”

The following unprofessional conduct rules are intended to protect clients and the public from incompetent, unethical, or illegal conduct of licensees. The purpose of these rules is to identify behaviors in the practice of nursing that are likely to deceive, defraud, or injure clients or the public. Actual injury to a client need not be established. These behaviors include but are not limited to:

(1) – (6) (No change.)

(7) Failure to [repay a guaranteed student loan, as provided in the Texas Education Code §57.491, or] pay child support payments as required by the Texas Family Code §232.001, et seq.

(8) – (12) (No change.)
AN ACT
relating to a prohibition on the use of student loan default or breach of a student loan repayment or scholarship contract as a ground for refusal to grant or renew an occupational license or other disciplinary action in relation to an occupational license.
BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. The heading to Chapter 56, Occupations Code, is amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 56. DISCIPLINARY ACTION AGAINST RECIPIENTS OF STUDENT FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE PROHIBITED

SECTION 2. Sections 56.001(3), (4), (5), and (6), Occupations Code, are amended to read as follows:

(3) "Licensing authority" means a department, commission, board, office, or other agency of the state or of a political subdivision of the state that issues a license.

(4) "Scholarship contract" means an agreement by this state, an agency of this state, a political subdivision of this state, or the United States to make a grant to a person to support the person while attending a public or private institution of higher education or other postsecondary educational establishment in exchange for the person's agreement to perform a service obligation.

(5) "Student loan" means a loan made to a person by a public or private entity to support the person while attending a public or private institution of higher education or other postsecondary educational establishment [that is:]

(A) owed to this state, an agency of this state, or the United States; or

(B) guaranteed by this state, an agency of this state, or the United States).

(6) "Student loan repayment contract" means an agreement by this state, an agency of this state, a political subdivision of this state, or the United States to repay all or part of a person's student loan in exchange for the person's agreement to perform a service obligation.

SECTION 3. Section 56.003, Occupations Code, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 56.003. DISCIPLINARY [AUTHORITY TO TAKE] ACTION IN EVENT OF DEFAULT OR BREACH PROHIBITED. A [On receipt of information from an administering entity that a person has defaulted on a student loan or has breached a student loan repayment contract or scholarship contract by failing to perform the person's service obligation under the contract, a] licensing authority may not take disciplinary action against a person based on the person's default on a student loan or breach of a student loan repayment contract or scholarship contract, including by:

(1) denying [deny] the person's application for a license or license renewal;

(2) suspending [suspend] the person's license; or

(3) taking [take] other disciplinary action against the person.
SECTION 4. Sections 157.015(f) and (g), Finance Code, are amended to read as follows:

(f) The commissioner may deny the renewal application for a residential mortgage loan originator license for the same reasons and grounds on which the commissioner could have denied an original application for a license, other than on the basis of the person's default on a student loan.

(g) The commissioner may deny the renewal application for a residential mortgage loan originator license if:

(1) the person seeking the renewal of the residential mortgage loan originator license is in violation of this chapter, Chapter 156, or Chapter 180, an applicable rule adopted under this chapter, Chapter 156, or Chapter 180, or any order previously issued to the person by the commissioner;

(2) the person seeking renewal of the residential mortgage loan originator license is in default in the payment of any administrative penalty, fee, charge, or other indebtedness owed under this title; or

(3) the person seeking the renewal of the residential mortgage loan originator license is in default on a student loan administered by the Texas Guaranteed Student Loan Corporation, under Section 57.491, Education Code; or

(4) during the current term of the license, the commissioner becomes aware of any fact that would have been grounds for denial of an original license if the fact had been known by the commissioner on the date the license was granted.

SECTION 5. Section 180.055(d), Finance Code, is amended to
For purposes of Subsection (a)(3), an individual is considered not to be financially responsible if the individual has shown a lack of regard in managing the individual's own financial affairs or condition. A determination that an individual has not shown financial responsibility may not be based on the individual's default on a student loan but may include:

1. an outstanding judgment against the individual, other than a judgment imposed solely as a result of medical expenses;
2. an outstanding tax lien or other governmental liens and filings;
3. a foreclosure during the three-year period preceding the date of the license application; and
4. a pattern of seriously delinquent accounts, other than student loan accounts, during the three-year period preceding the date of the application.

SECTION 6. Sections 466.155(a) and (g), Government Code, are amended to read as follows:

beverages; or

(5) has violated this chapter or a rule adopted under this chapter.

(g) For purposes of Subsection (a)(3), the comptroller, Texas Workforce Commission, and Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission[, Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, and Texas Guaranteed Student Loan Corporation] shall each provide the executive director with a report of persons who have been finally determined to be delinquent in the payment of any money owed to or collected by that agency. The commission shall adopt rules regarding the form and frequency of reports under this subsection.

SECTION 7. The following laws are repealed:

(1) Section 57.491, Education Code;

(2) Section 82.022(c), Government Code;

(3) Section 154.110(e), Government Code; and

(4) Sections 56.001(1), 56.002, 56.004, 56.005, and 56.006, Occupations Code.

SECTION 8. A disciplinary action proceeding under Chapter 56, Occupations Code, that was initiated before the effective date of this Act and that is pending on the effective date of this Act is terminated on that date.

SECTION 9. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this Act takes effect September 1, 2019.
